Incipit: //suggerentibus eis falsa voluit auctoritatem suam ostendere bonitatem etiam vite sue et doctrine hec autem causa erat valde bona, propter quod commendacio sequens non erat insipiencia

Explicit: nam si is qui venit id est pseudo apostolus qui venit predicandus auctoritate propria a deo non missus//

Notes: This commentary on 2 Corinthians 11-12 (i.e. on parts of these two chapters) has been compared against vol. 5 of the incunable edition placed online by the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek, ISTC in00131000: Rome, Conradus Sweynheym and Arnoldus Pannartz, 1471-72; the fields for incipit and explicit on this form represent only the first of the four columns on this leaf; the complete listing of the texts is: Piece 1: //suggerentibus eis falsa voluit auctoritatem suam ostendere bonitatem etiam vite sue et doctrine hec autem causa erat valde bona, propter quod commendacio sequens non erat insipiencia . . . nam si is qui venit id est pseudo apostolus qui venit predicandus auctoritate propria a deo non missus// (see the incunable, f. 82v); Piece 2: //<pseu>do apostolorum qui tantum predicabant propter temporale lucrum ut in quo gloriantur, scilicet imitando nos apostolos ut dicebant inveniantur sicut et nos . . . Iterum dico et quod dixi rocolo, ne quis putet me insipientem quod dixi ad hoc enim ostendi causam mee commendacionis esse rationabilem alioquin// (see the incunable, f. 83 r and v); Piece 3: //vobis insipiens me pseudo apostolis adequando, adhuc videbor vobis minus sapiens me eis prefendo, plus ego id est cum hoc faciam ostendo me ministrum christi plus esse quam ipsi quia plura mala passus sum . . . In itineribus hic consequenter ostendit propositum quantum ad mala voluntate assumpta et primo de malis exterioribus, secundo de interioribus ibi// (see the incunable, f. 84); Piece 4: //vero queritur grex cum prelate et tunc prelatus debet proponere utilitatem gregis salutis sui corporis. [Chapter 12:] Si gloriari. Postquam apostolus pretulit se pseudo apostolis in malis perperis . . . et ideo illi habuerunt tantam visionem, isti vero tantam revelationum. Aliquando autem coniunguntur quando utrumque fit uni sicut Daniel vii capitulo vidit quattuor // (see the incunable, ff. 84v-85).
